SLACK DREW A FINE FINISH

Verse Ran Under a Double Pull but Won All the Way.

THREE PAVORITES SUCCESSFUL

Mary B., Benjamin, and Verse Were the First Choices to, Earn Brackets, While Belle Blackburn and Lady Gay Also Showed in Front-Track Sticky and Holding.

Three favorites a second choice and an utsider won the several events yesterday at the Alexander Island track, Jockey Slack had the mount on Verse in the fourth race and came very near losing by his attempt to draw a fine finish. Verse ran under a double pull, and fifty feet from the wire Smoke showed in front and Shack had to ride to get Verse going again.

The track was sticky as the result of Tuesday hight's rain, but perfectly sale. The attendance was fair and the betting light. Freezer was selected as the good thing in the last race, but Lady Gay, the rank outsider, won in a romp. Summaries: How the Horses Ran

E-------VICTORY FOR GEORGETOWN.

The local football season was opened yesterday afternoon at the Georgetown College grounds, when the Georgetown defeated the Kendall Green eleven by the score of 16 to 0. The Kendalis put up a plucky game, but were unable to score against their heavier op-ponents. The Georgetown backs fumbled budly in the first baif and their interference was very ragged, but they played much better in the initer part of the game. However, they will have to improve considerably if they hope to defeat Columbia on Thanksgiving Day, to deleat Columbia on Thanksgiving Day,

The Varsity scored two touch-downs in the first half on a long run by Mike Mahoney around right end, and another by Guillen on sharp rushes through the center.
Bahen made two more touch-downs in the second half, one of which was a sensational run of three-fourths of the field. Murphy failed at all four trials for goal. For Kendall Broekhagen played a magnificent game and Williams tackled well.
The teams lined up as follows:

Washington Will Be Represented. If the new National Baseball Association is a go, there is every probability that Washington go, there is every procability that washington will be a member, as Waiter Hewitt and others are known to be in negotiation with the projectors of the proposed organization. The local parties have been quietly at work for sometime, and their plans will be ready for the meeting next week in New York.

"What! only Seven Dollars for this Overcoat?" That is all-and how they flew! Thanks to the telegraph company, we shall have another shipment of them this morning. Cheapest Overcoat that ever struck the back of a man. It is in the popular dark Oxford mixture, strong serge lining, and stoutly made in every par-ticular. A friendly clerk in another clothing house nearly fell down when he saw it. "How can you sell them for $7?" he asked. We would rather not tell it Never mind what you read in the papers, hear on the street, or see in the windows! Drop in here for a peep and a chat when you are ready to buy your Suit and Overcoat. We are not putting everything we know or have in the newspapers. We like to spring little surprises on our customers—give them more than they really expected. It makes them feel good, and makes us feel good.
